

Instructions for Name Change

1. Obtain the name change documents from the Probate Court or on the Court's website at www.lucas-co-probate-ct.org. Please specify whether it is a name change for an adult or for a minor. No name change is automatic. All applicants must submit and pass a record check (form included). The Court will determine whether just cause exists to order the change of name. The documents may be completed at the Probate Court or can be taken with you to be filled out at your discretion. The following information is relative to completing the documents properly:
2. Application: Must be completed in black ink or typed.
 - Fill out the entire application. Leave the Journal Entry blank.
 - Fill out the entire name, including any applicable middle names. Mistakes or omissions could result in receiving the wrong name. Please do not use any abbreviations or initials.
 - Sign the form in front of a Deputy Clerk only.
3. Notice: Must be completed in black ink or typed.

Fill out the Notice of Hearing form leaving blank the space for a hearing date which the clerk will assign when you appear to file the name change. If the name change is for a minor, and the father's address is unknown, you must fill in a last known address on the Notice of Hearing. The applicant will be billed for the publication fee from Toledo Legal News, which is a separate fee and not included in the filing fees.
4. Consent: Must be completed in black ink or typed. (Only required if the name change is for a minor.)
 - Both parents MUST completed and sign a consent form.
 - If either parent does not sign a consent form, please inform the Deputy Clerk of their address and they will be served by certified mail. Every effort must be made to obtain an address. This includes, but is not limited to, searching the internet, phone books, etc., and/or contacting the parent at any family member's homes.
 - If one of the parent's names or address is unknown:
 - Please inform the Deputy Clerk who will give you the appropriate form(s).
 - You must also submit an affidavit in front of a Notary Public or Deputy Clerk stating the unknown name or address.

5. You must have a certified copy of your birth certificate (if for an adult) or the child's certified birth certificate when you file along with a valid photo ID. The birth certificate must state the place of birth. If you do not have valid photo ID you will need to provide documentation to the Court showing why you cannot obtain an ID as well as proof of residency. You must be able to document one year of residency in Lucas County.
6. Court costs are due at the time of filing. The filing fees for an adult name change are $66.10. The filing fees for a minor's name change are approximately $85.00. Filing fees can be paid by cash or check only. Two certified copies of the Judgment Entry are included in the filing fees. You may purchase additional certified copies of the Judgment Entry for $1.05 each.
7. Your hearing date will be assigned at the time you file. Hearing dates are set 60 days from the day that you file.
8. Approximately two weeks after you file you will receive a separate bill from Toledo Legal News for the publication fee. The cost of publication is $51.00 and can be paid by cash, check, or credit card. Payments are made to: Toledo Legal News 247 Gradolph Street Toledo, Ohio 43612. Your name change cannot proceed without publication being completed. Publication must be completed 30 days prior to the hearing date and failure to promptly pay may void your hearing date and could result in the name change application being dismissed.
9. If you were born in the State of Ohio, the Probate Court will forward a copy of the Judgment Entry changing the name to the Department of Vital Statistics. Your birth certificate will not be changed. The Judgment Entry will be attached to your birth certificate. If you were born outside the State of Ohio, you will need to mail a certified copy of the Judgment Entry changing the name to the Department of Vital Statistics in the state you were born.
10. Please note, if you fail to appear for your hearing your application will be dismissed.
